

3rd Annual Dress Down for Autism Awareness!

Tuesday, April 25th, 2017

Dear Families and Staff:

Autism Awareness Month is upon us again! Throughout our community we all have experienced family, peers, or friends that are impacted by this disorder. We also recognize the need to find more answers to this puzzling disorder. This year, the total funds raised will be donated to two organizations aiding the Autism community. A portion of our fundraising will be donated to Autism Speaks. In addition, a percentage of our funds will support Belleville's involvement Special Olympics.

Our 3rd Annual Dress-Down for Autism will take place Tuesday, April 25, 2017. The cost to dress down is $2 for students and $5 for staff. Please come to school with your donation if you choose to participate.

You can also join the Belleville team and represent our community for the Autism Speaks Walk! By registering with our team at the link below, you can raise money to through friends and family for a great cause! All are welcome to help represent our school district!

When: Sunday, May 21, 2017

Where: MetLife Stadium, East Rutherford, New Jersey
